

SEAFORD TOWN FORUM – PRESS RELEASE - TUESDAY 30 APRIL 2013

The Seaford Town Forum was held on Tuesday 30 April at Seaford Baptist Church where the electors of Seaford were invited to attend and had the opportunity to question the Town Council on any activities undertaken during the past year.

Seaford Baptist Church Hall was chosen as a venue for the Town Forum to accommodate tables for the local groups that had received grants from Seaford Town Council, to promote their activities, also more space to accommodate additional seating for the public. The Mayor of Seaford, Councillor Linda Wallraven, opened the meeting by welcoming everyone and commented on the many events that had taken place during her term. This was then followed by comments on activities from the past year by the Leader of the Council, Councillor Ian White.

Lewes & Seaford Citizens Advice Bureau, Seaford Rugby Football Club, Dial-a-Ride, Seaford Community Partnership and Seaford Youth Forum who received large grants from Seaford Town Council gave a small presentation each on how they had spent their grant.

One of the Mayor's chosen charities; St James' Trust was presented with a £1,791 cheque from the money raised by the Mayor in the past year.

The Seaford Downs Syndrome and Special Needs Support Group will receive their £1,791 cheque at a later date as they were unable to attend on the evening.

St James' Trust

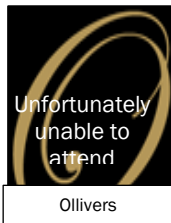

The Mayor also presented awards for service to the Community to the following:

Pomegranate

M&Co.

Ollivers

Ethel Evans

Tom Gwilliam

Celia Hughes

Amy Gough

Sen Smallwood

Jon Freeman

Sue Gwilliam

A special thank you was given to her Consort Liz Holland and the Town Clerk, Sam Shippen for all their support throughout her term as Mayor

