

Seaford Town Council - Press Release

Mayor of Seaford wishes Celia Hughes of the Tourist Information Centre a long and happy retirement!

On Friday 7th November, the Mayor of Seaford Mark Brown presented Celia Hughes with flowers to thank her for all her hard work during her seventeen years working at the Tourist Information Centre.

The Tourist Information Centre which is provided by Lewes District Council, has been based in the same building as Seaford Town Council since 2009 and all the staff play a vital part in supporting the Council.

Celia Hughes is the longest serving member and will be a huge loss to the Tourist Information Centre. On presenting Celia with her flowers, the Mayor says "I would like to thank Celia for all her hard work she has put in to serving members of the public and for her assistance in any Council matters. Celia has been a real asset to the Tourist Information Centre and was awarded the Mayors Community Award for all her work in the community in April 2013. Celia will be missed by all of us at the Town Council and I would like to wish her the very best in her retirement".
