

Seaford Town Council - Press Release

Young Mayor to Hold Children's Charity Christmas Party

Young Mayor of Seaford, Gabrielle Edwards is arranging a children's Christmas party. The 'Christmas Magic Eve' Party will be at the Downs Leisure Centre on 4th December from 6pm until 8pm.

For £3 per ticket children can enjoy a fun and festive evening with a Christmas disco and party games led by popular fairy tale characters. Tuck shop snacks will also be available for purchase. There will also be a visit from a very special bearded jolly man who is coming all the way from the North Pole!

Children under 6 years will need to be accompanied by a guardian. Parents can relax in the seating area with a hot drink from the café whilst watching their children enjoying the festivities.

The event is being held in aid of Teddy Treats which is the Seaford based children's charity that the Young Mayor has chosen to raise money for during her mayoral year. Teddy Treats provides treats to local families with children up to the age of 18 in Seaford and surrounding areas who are disadvantaged due to health and or social circumstances. All proceeds from the event will go to the charity.

Tickets are available to buy from Toy Town on Seaford High Street and the Seaford Tourist Information Centre. They are limited so get yours while you can!

The event is kindly sponsored by Seaford Chamber of Commerce, Toy Town, Dynamite Disco and Middleton Heating & Plumbing Ltd.
